I moved about seventeen times while I was growing up because of my dad's job in the Air Force. I only spent one year at Ruckel Middle School, but it was by far the best school I ever attended. My teachers were kind and great at their jobs, the campus was nice and inviting, and the frequent pep rallies made everyone full of school spirit. The year I spent at Ruckel should have been a very bad one since my dad was deployed in Afghanistan and I was having to deal with that on top of all the other things 12 year olds have to go through; without the sheer awesomeness of RMS, I would've been a really sad kid. I'm proud to have been a Ruckel Ram.

I am a sixth grader at Ruckel and it is an amazing school. I have learned so much this year and the teachers are really nice-especially Mr. Hastings world history and Mrs. Tredway chorus. There's are lots of clubs and activities like Multicultural Club, School Dances, Yearbook, Archery Club, and NJHS. There isn't a lot of homework even in advanced and honors classes but there's no need for it because we do most of our work in class. Most of the students here are so friendly and inviting! Everyone wants to talk to you and be your friend!
