I loved my time at Fort Walton Beach High School. I made many great friends, memories and had lots of life experiences!

Fort Walton Beach High School was a very humbling experience. The staff there and some of the students were very helpful and made learning at the school worthwhile. The one thing I would change would be changing the infrastructure of the school due to the overall interior being pretty small. I can recount many a time where there were just way too many students to account for the building and it made traversing the school internally, a nightmare.

I love attending Fort Walton. The academics and club/sport opportunities are great, but the sense of unity and strong spirit cannot be topped. I love the spirit that each and every administrator, teacher, and student holds for this school. There are so many clubs and other extracurricular activities available to each and every student. I wouldn't want to go anywhere else!

I have really enjoyed my time and FWBHS so far. The teachers I've had are awesome and they really have a grasp of material. The people you meet there are all awesome for the most part and the drama and dance departments are very noteworthy. There are some poor aspects about the school unfortunately. The parent teacher administration means student council members have little control even if they are enthused and the lack of club support by the school are also noteworthy, and there are cases of bullying. However this school is still great in my opinion.

Fort Walton Beach High School excels at all and every thing involved with the students education. Resources such as tutoring, counseling, and opportunities for scholarships are readily available, which is most likely why it is an A+ school because students are so prepped for exams. Each individual on the staff is truly concerned about the students welfare. Students can go to just about any adult for the best advice in terms of education. Fort Walton Beach High School provides an safe open atmosphere for its adherents to learn and prosper. Part of the peaceful atmosphere is acceptance of diversity. Each individual is different and unique in their own way ,and everyone has their own hobby that they like to do best whether it be the writing club, sports, or the National Honors Society. The school truly lives up to its motto "Excellence In All We Do."
